

The Silviculture Supervisor / Junior manager course

Who should attend

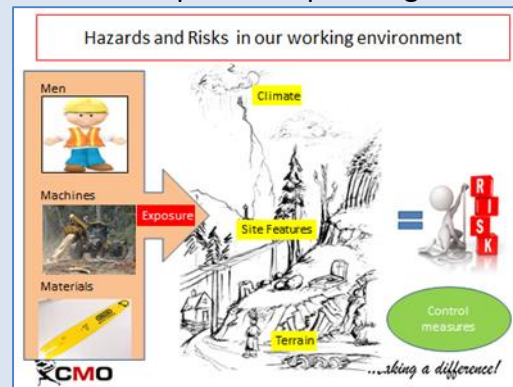

English literate newly graduated NMMU students , Contractor supervisors/managers

Course Content

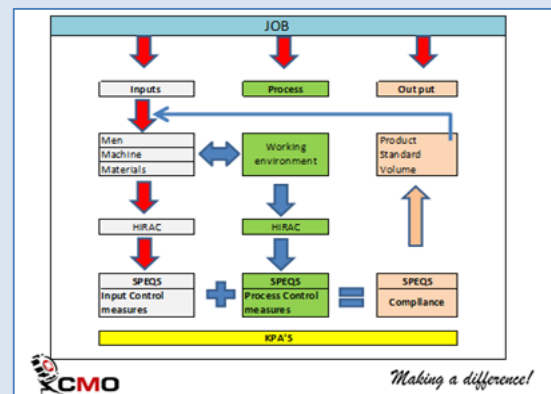

- The role of the supervisor /Junior Manager
- Business
 - What is a business and why does it exist?
- The forestry value chain
- Input - Process – Outputs
 - Input Hazards and risks
 - Input SPEQS control measures
- Our Working environment
 - Process hazards (CST's) and risks
 - Base line risk assessment
 - Process SPEQS control measures
- The PDCA system
- Planning
 - Site specific compartment planning using onsite risk assessment
 - Plan for men , machines and materials to overcome your CST's
- Doing for the supervisor
 - The 4 C's
- What must the supervisor Check
 - Critical control measures
- When and how must the supervisor Act

Informal vs. formal

Course duration
4 days theory and class exercises
1 day practical infield
Compartment planning

Minimum 12 candidates per session

Cost: R4650.00/pp. (excluding VAT)

Light lunch will be provided

Candidates must arrange own accommodation/transport if required

Dates : 8 – 12 February 2018 MPU area

Venue: To be advised

Bookings : nikita@cmo.co.za before 16 January 2018